Pumpkins were in great demand yesterday and when the time for closing came had almost disappeared from the market. Halloween parties were quite the rage last evening, and of course pumpkins were an important feature of the decorations, while small boys in all parts of the city spent their time after school preparing Jack-o-Lanterns with which to make the night look ghostly. A fresh invoice from the country will, however, replenish the supply this morning. Shad in small quantities reached the market yesterday, and a few shrimps and crabs came at the same time. The first has not been obtainable here for some time, and the latter are by no means plentiful.

Wholesale prices on hens and broilers have been reduced, the former to 12 cents a pound, the latter to 14 cents. Turkeys are improving in quality steadily, but the wholesale prices of 20 to 21 cents

Grain and Provisions.

Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO Oct. 31.—Exceedingly liberal shipments from Russia was a cause of active liquidation today in wheat. Apathy of all cash grain intensified the depression. As a result December wheat made a net decline of 12:012-6. May its off $1.00. Corn is up a shade. Cats are down $1.00. Extreme weakness distinguished the trading in the wheat pit throughout the entire session. The item of early news that most strongly impressed pit operators was the exceeding heaviress of Russian shipments for last week, exports from that country being 6.141,90 bushels. Total world's exports were nearly 11,000,000 bushels, which was 1.500,000 bushels more than had been estimated by a leading English crop statistician. The onormous movement from Russia overcame a considerable reduction in the amount shipped from India and Austria.

The domestic situation was equally as bearish. There were reports from the Northwest that receipts instead of becoming smaller in the mear future, were likely to become larger. A seeming confirmation of these rumors was furnished by today's arrivals, which, while a triffe less than the receipts of the corresponding day a year ago, were larger than those of last Monday. The weakness of all cash markets and the poor demand for flour was an additional source of discouragement to holders. At the pening the December option was off $\frac{1}{2}\text{if} \text{in}$ at $1.11\frac{1}{2}\text{in}$ May was down a shade to $\frac{1}{2}\text{if} \text{in}$ at $1.12\text{in}$ May was down a shade to $\frac{1}{2}\text{if} \text{in}$ at $1.12\text{in}$ May was down a shade to $\frac{1}{2}\text{if} \text{in}$ at $1.12\text{in}$ May was down a shade to $\frac{1}{2}\text{if} \text{in}$ at $1.12\text{in}$ May was the December delivery, the liquidation continuing heavy from start to finish.

With an entire absence of demand of any adequate sort, prices steadily declined. The downward tendency was checked temporarily about the middle of the day by covering by pit traders who had sold too vigorously carlier in the session. The cause of this demand was apparently the surprisingly small increase in the visible supply. The rally was shorf-lived, however, renewed profit-taking inaugurating another retrograde movement of prices. The low point on December of prices. The low point on December of was reached shortly before the close, when the price touched $1.10\text{in}$ 1.05\text{in}$ in the meantime May declined to $1.10\text{.
